

Member Area - Clients Registration

RINA has made a series of free, on-line services available to all registered clients through a reserved area (Member Area) which can be accessed by connecting to the site www.rina.org (or directly to portal.rina.org).

The Member Area enables RINA clients to use general information services and, in the case of some certification schemes, specific personalised services, such as the data relevant to certification files managed by RINA, the statement of account related to payments and, for certified clients, the pertinent certificates of conformity.

Moreover, by connecting to the Member Area, clients can access an interactive area where they can fill in proposed corrective actions following non-conformities found during audits.

Access to these data is, of course, restricted to the client concerned and to the reference people indicated. To take advantage of the free services available in the Member Area (Member Area - Clients), it is necessary to complete, in full, the form below and send it to the pertinent office.

Through Member Area registration, access and consultation, the user declares to have read, understood and accepted the Privacy Notice available on the site www.rina.org (RINA site) or <https://www.rina.org/en/privacy>
